(14) "Uncertificated registered public obligation" means a registered public obligation which is not represented by an instrument.

Amended by Chapter 329, 2007 General Session

15-7-3. Purpose.

(1) The Code provides that interest with respect to certain obligations may not be exempt from federal income taxation unless they are in registered form. It is therefore a matter of state concern that public entities be authorized to provide for the issuance of obligations in registered form. It is a purpose of this act to empower all public entities to establish and maintain a system which permits obligations to be issued in registered form within the meaning of the applicable Code provisions.

(2) It is further a purpose of this act to empower the establishment and maintenance of differing systems of registration of obligations, including system incidents, so as to accommodate the differing impacts upon issuers and varieties of obligations. It is further a purpose of this act to authorize systems that will facilitate the prompt and accurate transfer of registered public obligations and developing practices with regard to the registration and transfer of registered public obligations.

Enacted by Chapter 62, 1983 General Session

15-7-4. Registration system established by issuer.

(1) Each issuer is authorized to establish and maintain a system of registration with respect to each obligation it issues. The system may either be (a) a system pursuant to which only certificated registered public obligations are issued, or (b) a system pursuant to which only uncertificated registered public obligations are issued, or (c) a system pursuant to which both certificated and uncertificated registered public obligations are issued. The issuer may amend, discontinue, and reinstitute any system, from time to time, subject to covenants.

(2) The system shall be established, amended, discontinued, or reinstituted, for the issuer by, and shall be maintained for the issuer as provided by, the official or official body.

(3) The system shall be described in the registered public obligation or in the official actions which provide for original issuance of the registered public obligation, and in subsequent official actions providing for amendments and other matters from time to time. The description may be by reference to a program of the issuer which is established by the official or official body.

(4) The system shall define the method or methods by which transfer of the registered public obligation is effective with respect to the issuer, and by which payment of principal and any interest shall be made. The system may permit the issuance of registered public obligations in any denomination to represent several registered public obligations of smaller denominations. The system may also provide for the form of any certificated registered public obligation or of any writing relating to an uncertificated registered public obligation, for identifying numbers or other designations, for a sufficient supply of certificates for subsequent transfers, for record and payment dates, for varying denominations, for communications to holders or owners of obligations, and for accounting, cancelled certificate destruction, registration and release of security interests and other incidental matters. Unless the issuer otherwise provides, the record date for interest payable on the first or fifteenth days of a month shall be the fifteenth day or the last business day of the preceding month, respectively, and for interest payable on other than the first or fifteenth days of a month, shall be the fifteenth calendar day before the interest payment date.

(5) Under a system pursuant to which both certificated and uncertificated registered public obligations are issued, both types of registered public obligations may be regularly issued, or one type may be regularly issued and the other type issued only under described circumstances or to particular described categories of owners and provision may be made for registration and release of security interests in registered public obligations.

(6) The system may include covenants of the issuer as to amendments, discontinuances, and reinstitutions of the system and the effect of such on the exemption of interest from the income tax provided for by the Code.

(7) Whenever an issuer issues an uncertificated registered public obligation, the system of registration may provide that, as long as the uncertified registered obligation remains outstanding and unpaid, a true copy of the official actions of the issuer relating to the uncertificated registered public obligation will be maintained by the issuer or by the person, if any, maintaining the system on behalf of the issuer. A copy of such official actions verified by an authorized officer is admissible before any court of record, administrative body, or arbitration panel without further authentication.

(8) Nothing in this act precludes conversion from one form of registered public obligation provided by this act to a form of obligation not provided by this act if interest on the converted obligation continues to be exempt from income taxation under the Code.

(9) Rights provided by other laws with respect to obligations in forms not provided by this act shall, to the extent not inconsistent with this act, apply with respect to registered public obligations issued in forms authorized by this act.

Enacted by Chapter 62, 1983 General Session

15-7-5. Execution of obligations.

(1) A certificated registered public obligation shall be executed by the issuer by the manual or facsimile signature or signatures of authorized officers. Any signature of an authorized officer may be attested by the manual or facsimile signature of another authorized officer.

(2) In addition to the signatures referred to in Subsection (1), any certificated registered public obligation or any writing relating to an uncertificated registered public obligation may include a certificate or certificates signed by the manual or facsimile signature of an authenticating agent, registrar, transfer agent, or the like.

(3) At least one signature of an authorized officer or other persons required or permitted to be placed on a certificated registered public obligation shall be the manual signature.

Enacted by Chapter 62, 1983 General Session

15-7-6. Signatures of officers.

(1) Any certificated registered public obligation is valid and binding, notwithstanding the fact that any authorized officer who signed it ceased to be an authorized officer before it is issued.

(2) An authorized officer may adopt as and for the signature of such officer the signature of a predecessor in office if that predecessor's signature appears on the certificated registered public obligation. An authorized officer incurs no liability by adoption of a predecessor's signature that would not be incurred by such authorized officer if the signature were that of such authorized officer.

Enacted by Chapter 62, 1983 General Session

15-7-7. Seals.

If a seal is required or permitted in the execution of a certificated registered public obligation, an authorized officer may cause a facsimile of the seal to be placed on such obligation. Use of a facsimile of the seal has the same legal effect as the impression of the seal.

Enacted by Chapter 62, 1983 General Session

15-7-8. Agents of issuer.

(1) An issuer may appoint for such term as may be agreed, including for so long as a registered public obligation may be outstanding, corporate or other authenticating agents, transfer agents, registrars, paying or other agents and specify the terms of their appointment, including their rights, their compensation and duties, limits upon their liabilities and the provision for their payment of liquidated damages in the event of breach of certain of the duties imposed, which liquidated damages may be made payable to the issuer, the owner, or a financial intermediary. Such agents need not maintain a place of business in Utah or do business within this state.

(2) An issuer may agree with custodian banks and financial intermediaries, or their nominees, in connection with the establishment and maintenance by others of a central depository system for the transfer or pledge of registered public obligations. Any such custodian banks and financial intermediaries, or nominees, may, if qualified and acting as fiduciaries, also serve as authenticating agents, transfer agents, registrars, paying or other agents of the issuer with respect to the same issue of registered public obligations.

(3) Nothing precludes an issuer from performing, alone or jointly with other issuers, any function described in this section.

Enacted by Chapter 62, 1983 General Session

15-7-9. Transfer costs -- Agreements as to payment of costs.

(1) An issuer, before or at original issuance of registered public obligations, may as part of a system of registration provide that the transferor or transferee of the registered public obligations pay all or a designated part of the costs of the system as a condition precedent to transfer or that costs be paid out of proceeds of the registered public obligations, or that both methods may be used. Any costs of the system not required to be paid by the transferor or transferee or out of such proceeds is the liability of the issuer.

(2) The issuer may as a part of a system of registration provide for reimbursement or for satisfaction of its liability by payment by others. The issuer may enter into agreements with others respecting such reimbursement or payment, may establish fees and charges pursuant to such agreements or otherwise, and may provide that the amount or estimated amount of such fees and charges shall be reimbursed or paid from the same sources and with the same priority and effect and subject to the same procedures as the obligations.

Enacted by Chapter 62, 1983 General Session

15-7-10. Investment of public funds in registered obligations of public entities of other states.

Obligations issued by public entities under the laws of another state, the District of Columbia, or by territories or possessions of the United States, which are in registered form, whether or not represented by an instrument, and which, except for their form, satisfy the requirements with regard to security for deposits of money of public agencies prescribed pursuant to the law of Utah, are deemed to satisfy all such requirements even though they are in registered form if a security interest in such obligations is perfected on behalf of the public agency whose money is deposited.

Enacted by Chapter 62, 1983 General Session

15-7-11. Registration records -- Public inspection -- Location.

(1) Records, with regard to the ownership of or security interests in registered public obligations, are not subject to inspection or copying under any law of this state relating to the right of the public to inspect or copy public records.

(2) Registration records of the issuer may be maintained at such locations within or without this state as the issuer determines.

Enacted by Chapter 62, 1983 General Session

15-7-12. Obligations subject to chapter.

(1) Unless the official or official body of the issuer determines otherwise before or at the time of the original issuance of a registered public obligation, this act is applicable to such registered public obligation. When this act is applicable, the provisions of this act prevail over any inconsistent provision under any other law. Pursuant to Section 11-14-401, this act is specifically made applicable to registered public obligations issued under Title 11, Chapter 14, Local Government Bonding Act, in accordance with Section 11-14-305.

(2) Nothing in this act limits or prevents the issuance of obligations in any other form or manner authorized by law.

(3) Unless determined otherwise pursuant to Subsection (1), this act is applicable with respect to obligations which have been approved before enactment of this act by vote, referendum, or hearing, which authorized or permitted the authorization of obligations in bearer and registered form, or in bearer form only, and such obligations need not be resubmitted for a further vote, referendum or hearing, for the purpose of authorizing or permitting the authorization of registered public obligations under this act.

Amended by Chapter 105, 2005 General Session

15-7-13. Construction with other law.

This act shall be construed in conjunction with the Uniform Commercial Code and the principles of contract law relative to the registration and transfer of obligations.

Enacted by Chapter 62, 1983 General Session

15-7-14. Covenant against repeal of chapter.

The state hereby covenants with the owners of any registered public obligations that it will not amend or repeal this act if the effect may be to impair the exemption from income taxation of interest on registered public obligations.

(3) The disclosures shall be made clearly and conspicuously in writing and a copy of the rental purchase agreement shall be provided to the consumer at consummation or at some specified time after consummation, with consent of the consumer. The disclosures required under Subsection 15-8-6(1) shall be made on the face of the contract, above the line provided for the consumer's signature.

(4) If a disclosure becomes inaccurate as the result of any act, occurrence, or agreement by the consumer after delivery of the required disclosures, the resulting inaccuracy is not a violation of this chapter.

Amended by Chapter 12, 1994 General Session

15-8-6. Disclosures.

(1) For each rental purchase agreement, the lessor shall disclose in the agreement the following items, as applicable:

(a) the total number, total dollar amount, and timing of all payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property;

(b) a statement that the consumer will not own the property until the consumer has made the total payments necessary to acquire ownership;

(c) a statement that the consumer is responsible to the lessor for the fair market value of the property if, and as of the time, it is stolen, damaged, or destroyed;

(d) a brief description of the rented property, sufficient to identify the property to the consumer and the lessor, including an identification number, if applicable, and a statement indicating whether the property is new or used, but a statement that indicates new property is used, is not a violation of this chapter;

(e) a statement of the cash price of the property, which, in the case of a single agreement involving a lease of two or more items as a set, is sufficient if it states the aggregate cash price of all items;

(f) the total amount initially payable or required at or before consummation of the agreement or delivery of the property, whichever is later;

(g) a statement that the total of payments does not include other charges, such as late payment, default, pickup, and reinstatement fees, which fees shall be separately disclosed in the agreement;

(h) a statement clearly summarizing the terms of the consumer's option to purchase, including a statement that the consumer has the right to exercise an early purchase option and the price, formula, or method for determining the price at which the property may be so purchased;

(i) a statement identifying the party responsible for maintaining or servicing the property while it is being rented, together with a description of that responsibility, and a statement that if any part of a manufacturer's express warranty covers the property at the time the consumer acquires ownership of the property, it shall be transferred to the consumer, if allowed by the terms of the warranty;

(j) the consummation date of the agreement and the identities of the lessor and consumer;

(k) a statement that the consumer may terminate the agreement without penalty upon expiration of any rental period by voluntarily surrendering or returning the property in good repair, along with any past due rental payments; and

(l) a notice of the right to reinstate an agreement as provided in this chapter.

(2) With respect to matters specifically governed by the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, compliance with that act satisfies the requirements of this section.

Enacted by Chapter 251, 1993 General Session

15-8-7. Prohibited practices.

A rental purchase agreement may not contain:

(1) a confession of judgment;

(2) a negotiable instrument;

(3) a claim of a property interest in any goods except those goods delivered by the lessor pursuant to the rental purchase agreement;

(4) a wage assignment;

(5) a waiver by the consumer of claims or defenses;

(6) a provision authorizing the lessor or a person acting on the lessor's behalf to enter upon the consumer's premises or to commit any breach of the peace while repossessing rented property; or

(7) a provision mandating that the consumer purchase from the lessor insurance or a liability damage waiver for the merchandise.

Enacted by Chapter 251, 1993 General Session

15-8-8. Reinstatement.

(1) (a) A consumer who fails to make a timely rental payment may reinstate the agreement, without losing any rights or options that exist under the agreement, by paying:

(i) all past due rental charges;

(ii) reasonable costs of pickup and redelivery if the consumer reinstates after lessor has been required to pick up the property from the consumer; and

(iii) any applicable late fee.

(b) Any reinstatement payment shall be made within five days after the renewal date if the consumer pays monthly, or within two days after the renewal date if the consumer pays more frequently than monthly.

(2) A consumer who has paid less than 2/3 of the total of payments necessary to acquire ownership and who has returned or voluntarily surrendered the property, other than through judicial process, during the applicable reinstatement period set forth in Subsection (1), may reinstate the agreement. Reinstatement may occur under the circumstance described in this subsection, during a period, as agreed by the parties, which may not be less than 45 days from the date of the return or surrender of the property.

(3) A consumer who has paid 2/3 or more of the total payments necessary to acquire ownership and who has returned or voluntarily surrendered the property, other than through judicial process, during the applicable period set forth in Subsection (1), may reinstate the agreement. Reinstatement may occur under the circumstances described in this subsection during a period, as agreed by the parties, which may not be less than 90 days from the date of the return or surrender of the property.

(4) This section does not prevent a lessor from attempting to repossess property during the reinstatement period, but such a repossession does not affect the consumer's right to reinstate. Upon reinstatement, the lessor shall provide the consumer with the same property, if available, or substitute property of comparable quality and condition.

Enacted by Chapter 251, 1993 General Session

15-8-9. Receipts and accounts.

A lessor shall, upon request by the consumer, provide a written receipt for each payment made by cash or money order.

Enacted by Chapter 251, 1993 General Session

15-8-10. Renegotiations and extensions.

(1) A renegotiation shall occur when an existing rental purchase agreement is satisfied and replaced by a new agreement entered into by the same lessor and consumer. A renegotiation shall be considered a new agreement requiring new disclosures. However, events such as the following may not be treated as renegotiations:

(a) the addition or return of property in a multiple item agreement or the substitution of the rental property, if in either case the previous periodic payment allocable to a rental period does not change by more than 25%;

(b) a deferral or extension of one or more periodic payments, or any portion of a periodic payment;

(c) a reduction in charges in the agreement; or

(d) any court proceedings involving an agreement.

(2) Disclosures are not required for any extension of a rental purchase agreement.

Enacted by Chapter 251, 1993 General Session

15-8-11. Enforcement -- Penalties.

(1) (a) A lessor who fails to comply with the requirements of this chapter is liable to a consumer in an amount equal to the greater of:

(i) the actual damages sustained by the consumer as a result of the lessor's failure to comply with this chapter; or

(ii) 25% of the total payments necessary to acquire ownership, but not less than $100 nor more than $1,000.

(b) A lessor may also be liable to the consumer for the costs of the action and reasonable attorneys' fees, as determined by the court.

(2) A consumer may not take any action to offset the amount for which a lessor is potentially liable under Subsection (1) against any amount owed by the consumer, unless the amount of the lessor's liability has been determined by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction in an action in which the lessor was a party. This subsection does not bar a consumer then in default on an obligation from asserting a violation of this chapter as an original action, or as a defense or counterclaim, to an action brought by a lessor against the consumer.

(3) No action under this section may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction more than two years after the date the consumer made his last rental payment or more than two years after the date of the occurrence of the violation that is the subject of the suit, whichever is later.

Enacted by Chapter 251, 1993 General Session

15-8-12. Lessor's defenses.

(1) If a lessor established by a preponderance of evidence that a violation of this chapter is unintentional or the result of a bona fide error, no penalty specified in Section 15-8-11 may be imposed and the validity of the transaction is not affected.

(2) A lessor has no liability under this part for any failure to comply with any requirement imposed under this chapter if, within 60 days after discovering an error, and prior to the institution of an action under this chapter or the receipt of written notice of the error from the consumer, the lessor notifies the affected consumer of the error and makes whatever adjustments in the consumer's account as are necessary to correct the error.

(3) A penalty does not apply if any action is performed or omitted in good faith and in conformity with any provision of this chapter, notwithstanding that after an action or omission has occurred, the provision of the chapter is, for any reason, amended, rescinded, or determined by judicial or other competent authority to be invalid.
